

Part 2: Business Logic Implementation Problem Statement: You are tasked with implementing an inventory management system for a warehouse. The system should be able to track stock levels and manage restocking.

